The Third Sunday of Advent–December 13

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. –Philippians 4:4-7

Deacon's Word

The Rev. Preston Mitchell

Matthew 1: 20-33-An angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet. "Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means "God is with us."

It is the Christmas season. No wait, it is Advent. Good. For I tend to associate the Christmas season with the secular world: Black Friday, stringing lights, seeing who is naughty or nice, making sure all are accounted for in our cards and gifts. Many of you may enjoy this part of the season, but it has never had much appeal to me. The advent season though tells the story of the greatest gift God gave to humanity, God's very presence among us. Emmanuel, God is with us. The stories we read this lectionary season are from Luke's gospel speaking to the coming of Christ, including my favorite canticle Mary's Song of Praise or the Magnificat as many know it.

My favorite Christmas hymn is an advent hymn, O Come O Come Emmanuel. It is also my son's favorite seasonal hymn. He convinced his chorus teacher in elementary school to allow him to sing it at a Christmas chorale concert at the Flat Gap Missionary Baptist Church, an uncommon place for an advent song. The words are rich and deep and speak to the core of the hopes of the Jewish people.

*O Come, O Come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel shall come to thee O Israel.*

My friend Willie Dodson played this first stanza on a banjo the other night and then added his own verses to the hymn:

*O come, O come, O God divine, deliver captive Palestine,
Author of all you set the pace of time, reconcile our bitter war-torn minds.
Rejoice, rejoice, Oh God divine will come to you O Palestine.*

*O come, O come, O people of good will, and gather on top of the Zion hill
Together we will work the dirt till, the olives grow and we get our bellies filled
Rejoice, rejoice, O people of good will, will gather on top of the Zion hill.*

When Christmas Eve come in all its pageantry and vitality here at Emmanuel we are ready for God to be with us. And not just with us as Christians, but with all people regardless of religion or ethnicity. May we embrace this incredible gift of love in our lives this season and pray and work to see God's love everywhere and always.

We welcome John, Barbara, Marshall, and Virginia Simpson to Emmanuel.

John will join the staff as Director of Formation Ministries effective December 1.

He will be commissioned for this ministry during the 10:30 Eucharist Sunday, December 6

There will be a soup luncheon afterward in the Parish Hall.

34TH Annual Christmas Dinner

Preparations for the 34th Annual Christmas Dinner are well underway! We anticipate another large turnout this year, and we need your help. For many of you, this is an annual tradition, and we look forward to your support again this year. For others, this may be your first experience with our Christmas Dinner, and we hope it leaves the same kind of positive lasting impression on you as it has on many others over the years.

The Emmanuel Christmas Day Dinner will be Friday, December 25, from 4:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. We ask all parishioners to provide the following prior to the dinner:

- Desserts that do not require refrigeration
- UNWRAPPED gifts for children ages 0-12.

We have numerous other assignments. You are welcome to participate in one or more of these activities, which may take place before, during, or after the dinner on Christmas Day. We also need people to answer the telephone, distribute children's gifts, serve eggnog, and wash dishes. Please contact the Parish Office 276-669-9488 or emmanuelbristol@gmail.com.
